

Aesthetically pleasing and practical cable trays

Article Overview

For a combination of style and functionality, under-desk and wire mesh cable trays made from durable steel or aluminum are highly recommended.

Top Cable Tray Options

1. Kable Kontrol 10-Foot Cable Tray This tray is made from durable zinc-plated steel with a sleek chrome finish, offering both strength and corrosion resistance. It is ideal for extensive cable setups and provides a clean, professional look while supporting heavy cables safely . 2. Under Desk Cable Management Tray with Clamp Mount Designed for quick, damage-free installation, this carbon steel tray clamps onto desk edges without drilling. It supports around 15 pounds, features a mesh design to minimize dust, and includes rubber pads to protect surfaces, making it both practical and stylish . 3. VIVO Under Desk Cable Management Trays These low-profile black metal trays are perfect for concealing cables under desks. They include front openings for easy access, support up to 11 pounds, and are easy to install with screws. Their partially closed design keeps cables organized while maintaining a sleek appearance . 4. Self-Adhesive or Screw-Free Under Desk Trays For a minimalist setup, lightweight trays that attach with adhesive or screws are excellent. They hold multiple cables and power strips, are portable, and can be installed on wood, glass, metal, or marble desks without leaving marks. These trays enhance workspace aesthetics while keeping cables tidy .
