

How to buy cheap fiber optic distribution boxes

Article Overview

To buy fiber optic distribution boxes cheaply, consider factory-direct suppliers, online marketplaces, and bulk purchasing strategies.

Online Marketplaces

Platforms like Amazon and Newegg offer a wide range of fiber optic distribution boxes at competitive prices. On Amazon, you can find wall-mount boxes, LC coupler boxes, and enclosures for both single-mode and multimode fiber cables, often with multiple buying options per product . Newegg also provides fast shipping and customer service, which can help you compare prices and select cost-effective options .

Factory-Direct Suppliers

Buying directly from manufacturers can significantly reduce costs. FiberCheap, for example, offers fiber distribution boxes at 30-50% lower prices than typical retail, with options for custom and wholesale orders . Factory-direct purchases are ideal if you need multiple units or want to customize the boxes for specific FTTH or network deployments.

Tips to Save Money

- Buy in Bulk: Ordering larger quantities often reduces the per-unit cost. Many suppliers, including factory-direct ones, provide discounts for bulk orders .
- Compare Specifications: Ensure the box meets your technical requirements (e.g.,...
