

Hungarian Intelligent Power Distribution Cabinet Manufacturer

Article Overview

Key Hungarian manufacturers of intelligent power distribution cabinets include GANZ Kapcsoló- és Készülékgyártó Kft., Schneider Electric's Dunavecse facilities, and Smart Control Hungary Kft.

GANZ Kapcsoló- és Készülékgyártó Kft.

With over 100 years of history, GANZ KK is a fully Hungarian-owned company specializing in low-current equipment, including consumer cabinets, contactors, and relays. Their products are widely recognized for quality and are distributed internationally. The company emphasizes modernization and innovation while maintaining traditional values, making it a notable supplier of intelligent distribution solutions in Hungary and abroad (GanzKK) .

Schneider Electric – Dunavecse Smart Factories

Schneider Electric, a global leader in energy management and automation, operates two major smart factories in Dunavecse, Hungary. The Duna Smart Power Systems (DSPS) facility focuses on low-voltage distribution equipment and SF6-free medium-voltage switchgear (RM AirSeT), supporting sustainable and digitalized power systems. These factories produce engineering-to-order solutions for European markets, integrating smart, energy-efficient, and automated features into their distribution cabinets (Schneider Electric)
