

Purpose of Venezuelan Distribution Boxes

Overview

CLAPs is a program launched in April 2019 by President Nicolás Maduro to provide food to Venezuelan families at low prices, in a measure to counter the US sanctions and economic warfare. The Local Committees for Supply and Production (Spanish: Comité Local de Abastecimiento y Producción, CLAP) are food distribution committees promoted by the Venezuelan government in which the communities themselves supply and distribute the priority foods through a house-to-house delivery method. However, the Venezuelan government's muted response to the crisis, subsequent expansion of price controls over the next fifteen years, and external factors increased food insecurity and the prevalence of undernourishment for Venezuelans. This blog examines Venezuela's food security and nutrition.
